END OF THE PROCEDURAL MASK MANDATE IN QUEBEC
MAY 14, 2022

END OF THE PROCEDURAL MASK MANDATE IN QUEBEC MAY 14, 2022 The government has announced that as of May 14, masks will no longer required in public, except on public transportation and in health care facilities. Masks are still recommended for vulnerable and elderly people.

Source: <https://www.quebec.ca/en/health/health-issues/a-z/2019-coronavirus/maskor-face-covering/wearing-a-face-covering-in-public-settings-covid-19> (This link will be updated on May 14: feel free to consult it and make it known)

We no longer need to apply any health recommendations in places of worship. However, caution is still required, as we often welcome vulnerable people. Let's endeavour to ensure that all are comfortable in our places of worship, both those who remove their masks and those who wish to continue wearing them. Let's regularly remind people who are experiencing symptoms to isolate themselves, get a quick test and follow the guidelines that apply in such cases.

In summary: Wearing a mask is no longer mandatory, but is still allowed and sometimes even recommended.

QUILT RAFFLE

This beautiful Queen-sized (87x107) quilt in a "Framed Log Cabin" pattern and made by the Ladies of the St. Al's Sewing Group is ready to be raffled.

The quilt will be displayed at the back of the church and tickets will be made available there as well. Since we are still in the throes of the pandemic, we are being very cautious regarding the selling of tickets. We would suggest that, if you are interested in buying tickets, you take the ticket books home, complete them there and on your next visit to St. Al's, return the completed ticket stubs and payment. There will be a bowl placed at the back of the church for this purpose.

If anyone is interested in taking extra books to sell to family and friends - please do so. We would very much appreciate your help in selling the tickets as a portion of the sales will be donated to our parish.

If you are in need of more tickets please contact Carol in the church office.

Tickets are sold for:

$5.00 for a full book (6) or $1.00 for a single ticket

The draw for this beautiful quilt will be held at a later date.

GOOD LUCK TO ALL!
