UPDATE FROM THE ST. ALOYSIUS FINANCE WARDEN – 2022 BUDGET

As we head into the final few months of the year, I wanted to provide you with an update on our current financial situation. As is typically the case after the quiet months of summer, we find ourselves in a deficit situation from a budget perspective. Similar to pre-pandemic year fall deficits, we are currently managing a $6000 deficit that we need to address before the end of the fiscal year on December 31st. The current deficit pertains to our regular operating costs such as salaries, maintenance and repairs, phone/Internet, heating and lighting. The cost of “keeping the lights on”. With inflation at its highest in many years, our operating costs are already on the rise as we head into the colder months of the year. I recognize that we are all facing rising costs in our personal finances and our means of financial support to the church are being stressed. However, I am confident and thankful that you will all respond to this additional need through your weekly contributions as you have consistently done in the past. On behalf of the Wardens Board, I thank you for your continued support of our wonderful and blessed community.

Jim Brownrigg.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTIONS

If you would like to read, with a group of fellow parishioners, the Scripture readings of the following Sunday in order to better absorb them and let them speak to you during the week, send your e-mail address to the parish office and we will get in touch with you.

To all members of the English-language parishes of our archdiocese:

Would you like to know about our archdiocesan pastoral priorities for the coming year? Would you like to reflect on a spirituality of "welcome" that will be the key of these pastoral priorities? Would you like to learn about our new diocesan policy on safeguarding against abuse of minors and vulnerable adults?

7, from 10:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at St. Aloysius parish. Our guest speaker will be Fr. Thomas Rosica, c.s.b., former director of Salt and Light T.V. and coordinator of the Toronto World Youth Days in 2002.

You are welcome to join us for coffee starting at 10:00 a.m. Please bring a bag lunch for yourself, we will supply soup and dessert.

Help us plan our event by indicating your intention of participating in this activity by contacting Bozica at 819-771-8391, ext. 308 or at domitrovicb@diocesegatineau.org.
